President Amy Adams welcomed the group

Director Report

Mr. Chang discussed the Big Band Auction. He thought everything went great. He thanked all the volunteers. He was really happy with our guest artist Garey Williams. He suggested we need more music to give time for bid sheets to be processed. He announced next year's Big Band Guest will be the PLU College Big Band. He also mentioned that he would really like to have shells for the stage.

Amy had several discussion points to cover –

Big Band Showcase

The auction was a success, everything went fairly smoothly. Wendy stated that the last-minute dealing with the bid sheets was stressful. Mr. Brower was a great auctioneer. We will ask him to come back next year. Amy brought up the point of making build a band more money by not stopping the bidding until people or done bidding. Wendy presented the list of auction baskets: what they sold for, and the baskets that didn't sell. This year's showcase made $8863.50.
